

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

The United States District Court for the Northern District of California presents its greetings to the judicial authorities in Israel and respectfully requests the assistance of the courts of Israel in connection with a criminal matter pending in the United States of America. The United States District Court for the Northern District of California assures the courts of Israel and the appropriate judicial authority designated to execute this request that the courts of the United States are authorized to assist foreign tribunals in the execution of letters rogatory for assistance in criminal matters. The United States District Court for the Northern District of California respectfully requests the courts of Israel to reciprocate in this request, and to assist the courts of the United States of America to gather evidence requested by this Letter Rogatory to ensure the integrity of judicial proceedings in the United States of America.

The Facts

The United States Attorney, who is the federal prosecutor for this judicial district, is prosecuting charges that Oliver Hilsenrath violated the laws of the United States by conspiring to, and by committing, wire, mail, and securities fraud. Mr. Hilsenrath is also charged with tax fraud and criminal forfeiture allegations. Mr. Hilsenrath has denied all allegations by pleading not guilty to the indictment.

In the late 1990's, Oliver Hilsenrath was an executive in a United States company called United States Wireless Corporation. The government alleges that Mr. Hilsenrath committed fraud and tax offenses in relation to stock and other assets of this corporation.

The Court is informed that a witness with information relevant to these charges now resides in Israel. That witness is named Haim Haruvi. The Court is informed that Mr. Haruvi has information relating to financial transactions that bear on the fraud allegations now faced by Mr. Hilsenrath. Counsel for Mr. Hilsenrath has moved this Court to request a letter rogatory to secure the testimony of Mr. Haruvi. This letter rogatory accordingly seeks the assistance of the Israeli government in securing the testimony of Haim Haruvi, a resident of Israel.

The Offenses

Mr. Hilsenrath is charged with the following offenses:¹

I. 18 USC § 371

§ 371. Conspiracy to commit offense or to defraud United States

If two or more persons conspire either to commit any offense against the United States, or to defraud the United States, or any agency thereof in any manner or for any purpose, and one or more of such persons do any act to effect the object of the conspiracy, each shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

If, however, the offense, the commission of which is the object of the 13 (D) section 1032 (relating to concealment of assets from conservator, 14 receiver, or liquidating agent of insured financial institution);

15 (E) section 1341 (relating to mail fraud); or

16 (F) section 1343 (relating to wire fraud),

17 involving the sale of assets acquired or held by the Resolution Trust Corporation,
18 the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, as conservator or receiver for a 19 financial institution or any other conservator for a financial institution appointed 20 by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency or the Office of Thrift 21 Supervision, or the National Credit Union Administration, as conservator or 22 liquidating agent for a financial institution, shall order that the person forfeit to the 23 United States any property, real or personal, which represents or is traceable to the 24 gross receipts obtained, directly or indirectly, as a result of such violation.

25 (4) With respect to an offense listed in subsection (a)(3) committed for the purpose 26 of executing or attempting to execute any scheme or artifice to defraud, or for 27 obtaining money or property by means of false or fraudulent statements, pretenses, 28 representations, or promises, the gross receipts of such an offense shall include any property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, which is obtained, directly or indirectly, as a result of such offense.

1 (5) The court, in imposing sentence on a person convicted of a violation or 2 conspiracy to violate--

3 (A) section 511 (altering or removing motor vehicle identification 4 numbers);

5 (B) section 553 (importing or exporting stolen motor vehicles);

6 (C) section 2119 (armed robbery of automobiles);

7 (D) section 2312 (transporting stolen motor vehicles in interstate 8 commerce); or

9 (E) section 2313 (possessing or selling a stolen motor vehicle that has 10 moved in interstate commerce);

11 shall order that the person forfeit to the United States any property, real or 12 personal, which represents or is traceable to the gross proceeds obtained, directly 13 or indirectly, as a result of such violation.

14 (6)(A) The court, in imposing sentence on a person convicted of a violation of, or 15 conspiracy to violate, section 274(a), 274A(a)(1), or 274A(a)(2) of the 16 Immigration and Nationality Act or section 1425, 1426, 1427, 1541, 1542, 1543,
17 1544, or 1546 of this title, or a violation of, or conspiracy to violate, section 1028 18 of this title if committed in connection with passport or visa issuance or use, shall order that the person forfeit to the United States, regardless of any provision of State law--

19 (i) any conveyance, including any vessel, vehicle, or aircraft used in the 20 commission of the offense of which the person is convicted; and

21 (ii) any property real or personal--

22 (I) that constitutes, or is derived from or is traceable to the proceeds 23 obtained directly or indirectly from the commission of the offense of 24 which the person is convicted; or

25 (II) that is used to facilitate, or is intended to be used to facilitate, the 26 commission of the offense of which the person is convicted.

27 (B) The court, in imposing sentence on a person described in subparagraph
28 (A), shall order that the person forfeit to the United States all property

1 described in that subparagraph.

2 (7) The court, in imposing sentence on a person convicted of a Federal health care
3 offense, shall order the person to forfeit property, real or personal, that constitutes 4 or is derived, directly or indirectly, from gross proceeds traceable to the 5 commission of the offense.

6 (8) The court, in sentencing a defendant convicted of an offense under section 7 1028, 1029, 1341, 1342, 1343, or 1344, or of a conspiracy to commit such an 8 offense, if the offense involves telemarketing (as that term is defined in section 9 2325), shall order that the defendant forfeit to the United States any real or 10 personal property--

11 (A) used or intended to be used to commit, to facilitate, or to promote the 12 commission of such offense; and

13 (B) constituting, derived from, or traceable to the gross proceeds that the 14 defendant obtained directly or indirectly as a result of the offense.

15 (b)(1) The forfeiture of property under this section, including any seizure and 16 disposition of the property and any related judicial or administrative proceeding, 17 shall be governed by the provisions of section 413 (other than subsection (d) of 18 that section) of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 19 1970 (21 U.S.C. 853).

20 (2) The substitution of assets provisions of subsection 413(p) shall not be 21 used to order a defendant to forfeit assets in place of the actual property 22 laundered where such defendant acted merely as an intermediary who 23 handled but did not retain the property in the course of the money
24 laundering offense unless the defendant, in committing the offense or 25 offenses giving rise to the forfeiture, conducted three or more separate 26 transactions involving a total of $100,000 or more in any twelve month 27 period.
